

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

HAWAIIAN GAZETTE. HONOLULU, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23. LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

American News.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Faxon, Confidential Agent of the San Domingo Government, had an interview with Secretary Fish, recently. The subject of annexation will soon receive official consideration. A letter is published from Professor Gabb, who says he has prospected 200 square miles of gold-bearing territory, comprising in richness any known in California or Australia.

The Government, to-day, received advice direct from the insurrectionary district in Cuba, giving information of movements in that quarter. Cuban sympathizers, here, state that there are now over 20,000 men in the Cuban army, 2,500 of whom are Americans. Three thousand more Americans have recently been added. These parties say the success of the revolution is assured, if the United States do not recognize them as belligerents.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—The ironclad Atlanta, formerly a rebel craft, has been sold, and it is understood that, after getting to Cuba, giving information of movements in that quarter. Cuban sympathizers, here, state that there are now over 20,000 men in the Cuban army, 2,500 of whom are Americans. Three thousand more Americans have recently been added. These parties say the success of the revolution is assured, if the United States do not recognize them as belligerents.

PORTSMOUTH, May 12.—This morning the accommodation train from Portland for Boston, was thrown from the track near Newbury, severely injuring several passengers, and also the engineer and baggage men.

NEW YORK, May 12.—An explosion took place at the chemical works of Pondexter & Sons, First street, Hoboken, N. J., this morning. One man was seriously mutilated, probably injured fatally; two others escaped with slight injuries. The building was burned, and a fire started.

The anniversary of the American Equal Rights Association was held at St. James Hall to-day. The audience, mainly composed of ladies, was very large and intelligent. Elizabeth Cady Stanton presided.

The President does not look with favor upon the idea of accepting San Domingo, as a free State.

Secretary Boutwell has prepared a statement of the Public Debt on March 1st, similar in form to those issued for April and May. The Public Debt is estimated at $2,000,000,000, and is divided into three classes:—

No information concerning the proposed alliance has been received by the English, French, or Spanish Legations. The dispatches received from London, Paris, and Madrid, are all to the effect that no such alliance exists, and that no such alliance exists, and that no such alliance exists.

LOUISVILLE, May 12.—A number of General Thomas' Army, composed of about 100 men, were sent to the front to-day, to fight the battle of the Clouds. The result of the battle is not yet known.

The Times special says that Howard, the new Minister to China, is receiving his final instructions, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

It has been reported that Secretary Johnson has been ordered to resign, and that he will be appointed Secretary of the Interior, and will be appointed Secretary of the Interior, and will be appointed Secretary of the Interior.

General Sherman expresses the intention of visiting the Pacific coast this summer. He will be accompanied by his family, and will be accompanied by his family, and will be accompanied by his family.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The Tribune's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The Tribune's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The World's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The World's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The World's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The World's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The World's special says the present indications are that Henry Pierce, of Boston, will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China, and will be appointed Minister to the Republic of China.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

HONOLULU, JUNE 23, 1869.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Rufus L. Lord, the victim of the celebrated Lord bond robbery, died yesterday.

Washington, May 17.—Fifteen hundred pupils of the South Washington Sabbath school proceeded to the Executive mansion this morning, and were received by the President in the East room.

At present, the Secretary of the Navy is making arrangements to disband with Indian names for vessels, and follow the provisions of the law, requiring all steam vessels of the first class to be named after the States of the Union.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.

The President has directed a board of officers to assemble at New York on the 18th instant for the examination of Brigadier-General Adam Badeau, First Lieutenant of the Army, for his services in the late war.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has denied the request of Clark, Dodge & Co., for a re-examination of the tax assessed on brokers' commissions.

A large crowd of visitors thronged the interior of the White House.

Minister Motley's instructions are completed.